Pathfinder / Ruins / Visitors by Orson Scott Card

Well it was great to read an Orson Scott Card book that wasn't a thinly veiled metaphor for Joseph Smith and the early life of Mormons. All Ender isn't, parts of Gatekeeper books are, but this series was so crazy. . . anyway, I enjoyed it immensely.

Visitors (Card novel) - Wikipedia

I love Orson Scott Card, and this book is not an exception to any of his other work. My paperback book arrived in new condition - never had been read, and I was excited to read this story. About a third of the way through the book (after a few days of handling the book), the cover and the pages parted ways. The glue binding just - let go.
